PERU ARRIVES FROM ORIENT

Made Trip From Yokohama in 10 Days and Sixteen Hours.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s S. S. Peru, Commander Pillsbury, arrived at Honolulu from Yokohama at 8 a. m. yesterday, after a run of ten days and sixteen hours. She carried only a small passenger list.

Miss I. M. Elliott, a teacher of natural sciences and an associate of the Newnham College, Cambridge, England, and Miss A. M. Onslow of London, who have been making a trip around the world, and Mrs. Jesse Clement, a missionary, are stopping over at Honolulu for a few weeks.

Among the through passengers is Miss M. F. Murphy, who is returning from a trip to Manila.

Colonel J. G. H. von der Dussen, of the Dutch-Indian army, from Sumatra, is making a trip by way of the United States to Holland.

Lieutenant Commander J. M. Robinson, U. S. Navy, is on leave from Manila, making a trip home.

Mr. T. T. Veerkamp, a merchant from Java, is on his way to Holland by way of America.

The other through passengers are: Rev. and Mrs. S. A. D. Boggs and child, Professor and Mrs. E. W. Clement, Miss Ruth Clement, Master Clement, Mr. R. E. Crane, Mrs. J. G. H. Vander Dussen, Miss Nellie E. Fife, Mr. F. Froese, Mr. J. M. Hannan, Mr. C. Symon, Miss E. P. Upjohn and Miss I. Wilson.

The Peru had 563 tons of general cargo for Honolulu.

NO CARGO FOR CHINESE

Honolulu Trade With Hongkong Has Been Rapidly Decreasing.

Not a single consignment of Chinese merchandise came on board the S. S. Peru from Hong Kong for Honolulu yesterday. This is a unique condition of affairs, as it has been the usual thing for big consignments to arrive by the Pacific Mail Company's steamers for Chinese merchants in Honolulu and it clearly shows that the Japs are fast gaining an advantage over the Chinese in business here.

The Chinese are gradually thinning out and as the Japanese are increasing in number and only trade with stores kept by their own people the outlook is not exceptionally good for the pake. The Japanese goods are also cheaper and this furnishes another barricade against Chinese trade.

The China brought 563 tons of cargo for Honolulu and a large portion of this comes from Japan and is consigned to Japanese merchants.

American Ship Building.

The United States Bureau of Navigation reports: The year's new steamers on the seaboard include the trans-Atlantic liner Kroonland, 12,750 tons, the largest vessel ever built in this country; the Pacific Mail liner Korea, 11,276 tons, of 19 knots, the largest and fastest merchant steamer on the Pacific; Shawmut and Tremont, of 2600 tons each, built for the opening trade with the Philippines, and Alaskan, 3571 tons, for the New York-Hawaiian trade, the largest vessel ever launched into Pacific waters. The sister ships Finland and Siberia, to the trans-Atlantic and trans-Pacific mail lines named, have been launched and will be officially numbered and in operation in the early autumn. Two steamers, Nevada and Nebraska, of 4408 tons each, have been added to, and two more of 8000 tons each are building for the steam fleet to Hawaii around Cape Horn. The remaining nine new ocean steamers of 1000 tons or more are for local coasting trades.

Peru for the Coast.

The P. M. S. S. Peru, Pillsbury, left for the Coast at 6 o'clock last night. She carried a large number of passengers from Honolulu. Among them are Messrs. W. P. McLean and Wade Armstrong, who are bound for Mexico. Mr. George Hens, an attorney of Walluku, is making a pleasure trip to the Coast.

Robert Sudden for New York.

The barkentine Robert Sudden, J. Jansen, which arrived with coal for Honolulu on July 6, will load sugar from Castle & Cooke for New York.

Shipping Notes.

The steamer Helene sails today at 3 p. m.
The Alice Kimball will probably load id bar for the Coast.

The American ship Florence, Captain Spicer, is loading coal at Tacoma for Honolulu.

The O. S. S. Alameda arrives from the Coast on July 18 and sails for the Coast on July 23.

The bark Carrollton arrived at Whatcom from Honolulu on July 2. She failed to stop for inspection by the quarantine officers at Port Townsend and had to be towed back to Port Townsend from Whatcom for inspection before she could enter that port.

SHIPPING KOA TO SAN FRANCISCO

The Wood in Great Demand There for Manufacturing Furniture.

Furniture manufacturers have for years been classing mahogany furniture as the best and most expensive, and proud has been the housewife in the Western States who could boast she had a mahogany sideboard in her dining room, but now the up-to-date furniture connoisseur must have odd furniture made of koa wood from Hawaii. A shipment of this wood will shortly be made from Honolulu to furniture manufacturers in San Francisco.

But the San Francisco furniture manufacturer has awakened to the possibility of koa wood too late, as the koa forests of Hawaii are almost extinct. But very little of the wood now remains, and what there is fetches fabulous prices.

The Maunakea Lumber Co., of Laupahoehoe, Hawaii, shipped a cargo of 1535 pieces of koa wood by the schooner Alice Kimball to Honolulu, and this lot is to be sent on to San Francisco. This small cargo of roughly sawn timber is probably worth over $5000, and a stranger noticing the pile on the dock and not knowing what wood it was might have hesitated in offering more than a couple of hundred dollars for it. The wood takes a very fine polish and makes up into the finest kind of furniture.

There is such a demand for koa furniture in San Francisco that it is very unlikely if any of it will be shipped back to Honolulu.

Korea to Arrive August 8

The new steamship Korea of the Pacific Mail Company is now on the way from New York to San Francisco, and is expected to arrive at the latter port on July 28. She will then take the Peking's place and is expected to arrive on her first trip to Honolulu on August 8.

ON THE FASHIONABLE BOULEVARDS, all classes of work mingle together, but the discerning eye readily distinguishes the O'Brien & Sons', San Francisco, and Babcock Co.'s New York vehicles, by that subtle air of fashionable elegance that is not mere outer ornamentation or novelty, but is a happy combination of many details in harmonious relationship. It represents the experience gained by years of improvement.
